Ms. Roach's practice is dedicated exclusively to family law and domestic relations matters. Such matters include divorce, dissolution, paternity actions, pre-marital agreements and various other proceedings that involve custody, visitation and support issues. She is skilled in both negotiation, including collaborative law, and litigation. She is a frequent lecturer on family law issues throughout the state of Ohio and has regularly contributed articles on various topics to Law You Can Use, a weekly consumer legal information column provided by the Ohio State Bar Association.

Ms. Roach represents clients in Hamilton, Butler, Warren and Clermont counties in Ohio and in Boone, Kenton, Campbell, and Jefferson counties in Kentucky.

Ms. Roach has completed the Family Law Trial Advocacy Institute with the American Bar Association and a post-graduate course in Family Law with the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. She also has completed training in Collaborative Family Law.
