

KMK Partner Joseph Trauth, Jr. Elected to Board of Directors of the Tom Geiger Guest House

May 11, 2009

Joseph L. Trauth, Jr., a partner in the Real Estate Group at Keating Muething & Klekamp (KMK®), was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Tom Geiger Guest House (TGGH).

The TGGH is a non-profit corporation established to help homeless women and their children move toward independent living by providing them with transitional housing and the appropriate supportive services while they complete their educations and/or job training.

“I am honored to be appointed to the Board of such a worthwhile cause,” said Trauth.

In addition, Trauth serves on the Board of Trustees for Volunteer Lawyers for the Poor Foundation, is a member of the Board of Directors for Citizens for Community Values, and serves on the River City Correctional Center's Facility Governing Board. Trauth earned his J.D. from the University of Cincinnati College of Law (1973) and his B.S. from Xavier University, cum laude (1967).
