

KMK Lawyers Recognized in 2009 Chambers USA

May 28, 2009

Nine lawyers at Keating Muething & Klekamp (KMK®) were selected for inclusion in the 2009 edition of Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers®, published by Chambers & Partners Publishing.

The KMK lawyers selected for inclusion in the 2009 edition of Chambers USA: America's Leading Business Lawyers are noted below with the practice areas for which they are recognized:

James E. Burke – Litigation

Robert E. Coletti – Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions

Patricia B. Hogan – Intellectual Property

Kevin E. Irwin – Bankruptcy / Restructuring

Gary P. Kreider – Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions

Robert G. Sanker – Bankruptcy / Restructuring

Edward E. Steiner – Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions

Mark A. Weiss – Corporate / Mergers & Acquisitions

Herbert B. Weiss – Real Estate

The Chambers & Partners research team spent a year canvassing clients and lawyers across the country to obtain a consistent market view of those firms and lawyers that are considered leaders in their fields. The directory contains a detailed and independently-researched editorial describing each listed law firm and lawyer and its strengths, details of recent work, quotes from clients and peers, and a list of active clients within each practice area.

ABOUT KEATING MUETHING & KLEKAMP

The law firm of Keating Muething & Klekamp PLL, based in Cincinnati, was founded in 1954. KMK has approximately 115 lawyers and a support staff of 150 employees. For the past 55 years, KMK has contributed to the success of many businesses, from Fortune 500 corporations to small start-up companies. KMK's mission is to provide high quality legal counsel to business clients by meeting their identified needs and developing appropriate solutions. KMK's vision is to excel as a law firm and community leader by recruiting and retaining the highest quality attorneys and personnel with diverse social, ethnic, and political backgrounds.