

SUMMER ASSOCIATES

Since our founding in 1954, KMK has continued to pride itself on attracting the best and brightest legal talent in the market. We maintain our standard of excellence by recruiting and retaining individuals who embody the high personal and professional ideals of our firm.

CAMARADERIE

At KMK we consider one another family. Our vision is to excel as a law firm by recruiting and retaining high quality attorneys with a variety of social, ethnic, and political backgrounds. We value the personal and the professional contributions of every individual. KMK prides itself on instilling mutual respect as one of the many tenets of our firm.

INTEGRITY

At KMK, we are committed to serving each client with integrity and respect. Our attorneys commit to thoroughly understanding each client's business, which allows us to provide the most appropriate solutions. We are proud to have many long-term clients, a testament to the strong relationships we have developed.

WORK ETHIC

Timeliness and responsiveness are important commitments we make to clients. Our firm has adopted a sense of urgency that is imbedded into our culture. We continue to keep pace with the changing needs of our clients, working to anticipate change to compete in a dynamic business world.
